AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrat. Family Medicine, known as the Calboun Liver as Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 30 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astorishing to say, during that long negligible of the state o all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing as asy, during that long period not a solitary death oc curred under his treatmant. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

The project favored by Governor Walker and others of assuming the Southern State debts, will, it is said, be renewed by General Ben. Butler this session, at least to the extent of 25 per cent. There was a lobby here last winter urging the measure on Congress; and as these debts are chiefly owned at the Northern cities, a pressure from that quarter may be expected, incluning such parties as Henry Clews and others, allies and copartners of the carpet-baggers. It is not believed that this little job will stand much show before Congress.

The message begins with corgratulations on the liberation of the territory and the maintenance of order, and concludes as follows: pe is assured that we are firmly re-Europe is assured that we are firmly resolved to preserve peace; therefore without fear she sees us resume possession of our territery. The administration has always acted in the conservative spirit which animates the great majority of the Assembly, from which I will never depart. The agitation of the public mind redoubled in intensity as the period of your reassembling approached because it was requisite to discuss constitutional bills, which necessarily involve the question of a form of government.

the question of a form of government.

I had neither to intervene in these discussions nor to forestall your sovereign decision, but merely to confine the former within legal limits, and to provide that the latter should be respected.
Your power, therefore, is intact. Nothing can impede its exercise. Perhaps, however, you may think that, in the present situation, with party feeling so strong, the establishment of any other definitive form of government would be attended by serious difficulties, and that it would be more prudent to maintain existing institutions. If so permit maintain existing institutions. If so, permit me, elected to an honor which I did not seek, to tell you frankly my opinion, To com-pletely ensure the public peace, the Govern-ment absolutely lacks two things essential to a condition of efficiency.

It has neither sufficient vitality nor author v. It can do nothing durable. If the right of the government are daily questioned, with its powers liable to be changed at any moent, it can secure peace to-day, but not safe ty to morrow. A North German paper advertises for the American heirs of Catharine Spelling and her daughter Dorothy, both of whom died a violent death in 1852, at Amsterdam. The story of the death of the two women, so long ago as 1852, and the finding of their murderer twenty years after, is a revela-tion of actual occurrences which are as terribly tragic as may be found within the lids of romance. The widow, Cathhouse by themselves on Harlem street, Amsterdam. One day in the summer of 1852, a placard appeared on their door, saying that they had gone to the country. Six weeks rolled around, and still the placard remained on the door. The suspicious of the police were aroused by the long ab-sence of the women and the house was entered. The placard was found to be a fearful deception; the bodies of the two women were found on the floor, their diamonds, money and bonds missing, and no clue to the murderer and thief found. In July last the house was torn down, and in its lestruction came to light a circumstance equaling in horror the discovery of the assination of the two lone women. Between the house teken down and the adjoining one was a space of about a foot, and confined in this narrow cell was found the skeleton of a man caught midway beween the top and the bottom, and on the ground beneath him were found the dia monds, the bonds and the money of the two murdered women. The assassin, in attempting to escape, had missed his footing, fallen between the houses, and with a strip of blue sky visible above the high walls of his tomb,

OVER THERT YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHATHON FOR THE HAIR WAS first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek, "KATHRO," algalitying to cleanse, purify, rejuvemate, or vestore. The lawor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BRAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It engicetes Dandruff. It prevents the Supprecedented and incredible. It increases the Gnowns and Brautre of the Hars. It is a delightful fressing. It eradicates Dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance.
